David M. Aafedt, Esq. is a shareholder and board member with the law firm of Winthrop & Weinstine's Health Law and Regulatory practice groups. David served as an Assistant Attorney General with the Minnesota Attorney General's office until 2003, when he joined Winthrop & Weinstine, P.A. David represents dentists, specialists and other health care providers in a variety of capacities, including litigation and enforcement proceedings, health care licensing board investigations, compliance and regulatory matters, as well as federal, state, and private payer billing audits and investigations. David also serves as outside general counsel to hundreds of dental and health care professionals and practice groups, where he advises them on, among other issues, the purchase or sale of a medical or dental practice or business; general corporate governance, management, and employment issues; public and private payer reimbursement issues; fraud, waste and abuse, anti-kickback and Stark; credentialing, privileging, and peer review processes; state and federal privacy laws, including data breaches.

Gerald H. Fornwald, Esq. is a shareholder in Winthrop & Weinstine's Health Law and Commercial Litigation groups. Gerry works with a wide variety of specialty medical providers, dentists, and companies in other regulated industries to navigate complex licensing, information privacy, and compliance issues. Gerry also has significant experience representing small business owners and closely held companies in ownership disputes and litigation. He uses that background to provide comprehensive advice to dentists and other business owners about how to avoid potential pitfalls when forming, selling, or buying into a practice.

One core hour continuing education credits will be given.
