Emergency Executive Order 21-21

Safely Sunsetting COVID-19 Public Health Restrictions

Amending Emergency Executive Orders 20-55, 20-81, and 21-11

Rescinding Emergency Executive Orders 20-19, 20-23, 20-26, 20-28, 20-39, 20-43, 20-46, 20-50, 20-51, 20-54, 20-55, 20-58, 20-70, 20-81, 20-82, 20-86, 20-94, 20-95, 20-101, 21-02, and 21-11

I, Tim Walz, Governor of the State of Minnesota, by the authority vested in me by the Constitution and applicable statutes, issue the following Executive Order:

The COVID-19 pandemic continues to present a rapidly evolving challenge to our State. On March 13, 2020, I issued Executive Order 20-01 and declared a peacetime emergency because this pandemic, an act of nature, threatens the lives of Minnesotans, and local resources are inadequate to address the threat. Since declaring the peacetime emergency, I have extended it every 30 days.

COVID-19 continues to pose a serious threat to life in Minnesota. In the past month, we have experienced twenty-three days with over 1,500 new COVID-19 cases, over 2,600 Minnesotans have been hospitalized, and we have recorded the loss of over 300 of our neighbors, friends, and family members. The nation's COVID-19 death toll recently surpassed 575,000, and we have recorded over 7,200 deaths in Minnesota.

Recent trends, fueled by our extraordinary vaccine efforts, are moving in the right direction. To date, over 2.6 million Minnesotans have received at least one dose of vaccine, over 2 million Minnesotans have completed a full vaccine series, and over 87 percent of those over the age of 65 are vaccinated. All Minnesotans sixteen and older are eligible to get vaccinated. Over the coming weeks and months, vaccinations will continue to have a real impact on case growth, hospitalizations, and deaths.

Based on current trends and guidance from public health experts, we are ready to begin safely transitioning back to a more normal summer. Accordingly, this Executive Order details a series of measured steps to end restrictions on social gatherings and businesses, and it sets a timeline to rescind numerous other executive orders that, due to our collective progress, will no longer be necessary.

We know that outdoor activities and events pose a relatively lower risk of COVID-19 transmission. For that reason, and because of the positive trends we have seen from our vaccination efforts, we will take immediate steps to relax restrictions on outdoor venues. Furthermore, as key metrics trend downward, we will also take immediate steps to lift caps on larger events and gatherings.

We also know that increasing vaccination rates in the coming weeks will allow for closer interactions between individuals to happen more safely. This is why we are setting a date in the near future to lift the remaining capacity restrictions on indoor businesses and venues, even as we continue to require businesses to take commonsense actions to protect their workers and customers.

Since July 2020, we have required individuals to wear face coverings in certain settings. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (“CDC”) has extended its mandate to wear face coverings on public transit through September 13, 2021. Wearing a face covering is one of the simplest ways to prevent COVID-19 transmission, and our adherence to the face-covering mandate has saved lives. However, as our vaccination rate steadily climbs, this Executive Order plans for an eventual end to the face-covering mandate along with remaining business restrictions at a time when it is prudent.

We must remember that the risk of COVID-19 transmission increases as we ease restrictions. As I have noted previously, some settings continue to pose more risks than others. Indoor activities are riskier than outdoor activities. Unpredictable settings are riskier than more predictable and controlled settings. Settings conducive to prolonged contact provide more opportunity for transmission than settings featuring more transitory interactions. Strenuous activities resulting in increased respiration pose higher risk than sedentary activities. Recognizing the impact of these variables, this Executive Order continues to limit certain settings more than others due to the varying levels of risk and impact on public health.

While we are making plans to end restrictions on social gatherings and businesses, we must remember the role that each one of us plays in preserving our public health. When Minnesotans leave their homes, they should continue to follow the science and adhere to public health guidance. Most importantly, I urge every eligible Minnesotan to get vaccinated. Each of the available vaccines has been shown to significantly reduce the likelihood of COVID-19 transmission, hospitalization, and death. The sooner we can all get vaccinated, the sooner we can all get back to the activities that we love.

In Minnesota Statutes 2020, section 12.02, the Minnesota Legislature conferred upon the Governor emergency powers to “(1) ensure that preparations of this state will be adequate to deal with disasters, (2) generally protect the public peace, health, and safety, and (3) preserve the lives and property of the people of the state.” Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 2020, section 12.21, subdivision 1, the Governor has general authority to control the state’s emergency management as well as to carry out the provisions of the Minnesota Emergency Management Act.

Minnesota Statutes 2020, section 12.21, subdivision 3(7), authorizes the Governor to cooperate with federal and state agencies in “matters pertaining to the emergency management of the state and nation.” This includes “the direction or control of . . . the conduct of persons in the state, including entrance or exit from any stricken or threatened public place, occupancy of facilities, and . . . public meetings or gatherings.” Pursuant to subdivision 3 of that same section, the Governor may “make, amend, and rescind the necessary orders and rules to carry out the provisions” of the Minnesota Emergency Management Act. When approved by the Executive Council and filed in the Office of the Secretary of State, such orders and rules have the force and effect of law during the peacetime emergency. Any inconsistent rules or ordinances of any agency or political subdivision of the state are suspended during the pendency of the emergency.

For these reasons, I order as follows:

1. Effective on Friday, May 7, 2021 at 12:00 pm (noon), individuals and businesses throughout Minnesota must continue to comply with the provisions of Executive Order 21-11, except as modified or superseded by the following amendments.
